

Laura the Occupational Therapist (OT) is coming to see my class at school.

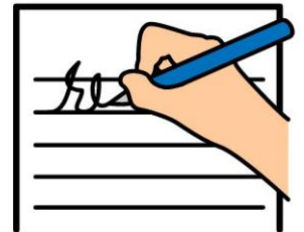

Laura will come to school and sit with the class.

Laura will be watching the whole class. You will be learning, listening, and playing like you do normally in school.

You might see Laura writing and listening to the teacher too.

Laura will say goodbye to the class and leave before the end of school.